

WHITES IN GEORGIA
FIGHT TO HOLD G.O.P.

Wood and Lowden Both Charged
With Spending Huge Sums.

ATLANTA, May 14.—The Republican National Committee is confronted with a serious anti-Negro controversy from Georgia. Leading white Republican leaders here are demanding a showdown. They assert that thousands of different or lukewarm Democrats are ready to vote for the Republican candidates in the coming campaign if obnoxious colored leaders can be eliminated.

That is the real issue here, and it will be submitted to Chairman Hays and his associates at Chicago. The white forces are led by Roscoe Pickett, a white Republican from one of the mountain counties of the state, and Henry S. Jackson, a well-to-do citizen of Atlanta. Behind this movement are such prominent business men as C. W. McClure, a millionaire ten-cent store merchant, and H. G. Hastings, another wealthy man.

In this mix-up over the control of the party machinery here is involved the candidacy of Gov. Lowden and Gen. Wood. The Johnson adherents claim that the Hitchcock representatives have spent about $45,000 for Wood, and the Pickett-Jackson group charge that it cost Lowden from $40,000 to $45,000 to get the promise of a majority of the Johnson delegation.
